Harry McKillop Elementary celebrates #Read2Grow Day

MELISSA, TX – Students at Harry McKillop Elementary enjoyed a full day of themed reading activities for the school’s annual #Read2Grow Day on Tuesday.

City officials, school administrators, parents, teachers, and community members volunteered as guest readers in the classroom.

Students participated in Readers Theater productions, and the entire school came together for a group picture in the shape of READ.

Other reading activities included “Silent Reading”, “Book Buddies”, “Novel in an Hour”, “Illustrate the Plot”, “Character Interviews”, “Writing Roulette”, and “Write a Silly Story”.
